ABOUT ME

I am Nardos Belay, a highly motivated Law graduate from Debre Markos University (Class of 2026) with a CGPA of 3.45 and an 80% exit exam score. Beyond my legal training and internships at the Ministry of Justice, Ayalew Bitane Law Office, and the Ethiopian Women Lawyers Association, I have actively cultivated leadership and community service skills. Specifically, I provided pro bono legal aid, facilitated human rights training for students as a member of the University's Human Rights Club, served as an executive member of the Anti-Corruption Commission representing women's affairs, and tutored students with special needs as a member of the Student Union. These experiences have prepared me to manage complex tasks, collaborate across multidisciplinary teams, and approach problems with an analytical mindset. I am highly motivated to bring my organizational skills and commitment to your team's ongoing development strategies.

RE: Letter of Recommendation for Ms. Nardos Belay G/Yohannes

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation in support of Ms. Nardos Belay G/Yohannes.

I have known Ms. Nardos since 2021, when I taught the LL.B. course Civil Procedure Law II at Debre Markos University, Ethiopia. This course forms part of the LL. B curriculum. Throughout the semester, Ms. Nardos distinguished herself through her active class participation, thoughtful inquiries, and insightful contributions to discussions. She consistently demonstrated a strong commitment to learning and completed assignments with a high level of diligence and quality. Her collaborative attitude and meaningful engagement in group work further reflected her academic maturity and professionalism.

As her instructor, I was particularly impressed by her intellectual curiosity, perseverance and eagerness to expand her knowledge. She possesses excellent interpersonal skills and has demonstrated both leadership and teamwork qualities. Her dedication to academic excellence has been evident throughout her studies.

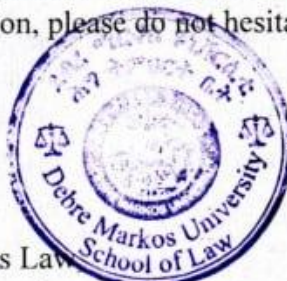

Beyond her academic achievements, Ms. Nardos is a person of strong character and integrity. She has consistently shown compassion and a genuine commitment to serving others through volunteer activities. I am also aware of her valuable contribution to the provision of free legal aid services to indigent members of the community, reflecting her sense of social responsibility and commitment to justice.

Based on my observations and interactions with her, I am confident that Ms. Nardos possesses the academic competence, personal integrity and professional potential necessary to excel in any academic program or professional position she pursues. She is a motivated, disciplined, and capable young professional who will undoubtedly make meaningful contributions wherever she is given the opportunity to serve.

Therefore, I recommend Ms. Nardos Belay G/Yohannes without reservation. I am confident that she will meet and exceed expectations and will be an asset to your institution or program. Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Anteneh Geremew Gemed,
Assistant Professor of Human Rights Law

To whom it may concern

I am pleased to offer this recommendation for Nardos Belay. She completed her two-month internship from July 1, 2025, to September 1, 2025, in the Human Rights Directorate at the Ministry of Justice (MOJ). I have known Nardos to be highly motivated since she joined our department. Her internship involved tackling the complex intersection of corporate activity and human rights obligations. Specifically, her primary role involved conducting detailed legal research on emerging international BHR frameworks, including the UN Guiding Principles, and the application of domestic legislation to multinational enterprises. She was instrumental in analyzing case studies related to environmental due diligence and labor rights compliance, preparing comprehensive research memos that directly informed our policy discussions.

She consistently demonstrated responsibility, hard work, and strong passion. She is a quick learner and easily adapt techniques of solving complicated problems; her logical and analytical skill enabled her to develop highly insightful views. She integrated seamlessly into our team, showing excellent communication skills and a strong commitment to public service and justice. Her deep interest in the subject matter translated into tangible, high-quality output that added immediate value to our department's work.

I am confident that she will thrive in environments that require rigorous analysis and a commitment to justice. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Sincerely,

Name and Position: Awel Sultan Mohammed (LLB & LLM), Director of the National Human Rights Directorate, FDRE Ministry of Justice.
